

For the past ten years ALBERTSON FURY has dominated the landscape of girls soccer in NY State. With 24 ENY STATE Cups and three Regional Championships Fury is now part of the greatest female league ever produced in this country the Elite Clubs National League (ECNL).

Fury teams participate against the top talented teams in the Nation such as Surf, Slammers, Texans, PDA, Eclipse and play in front of all the top colleges in the country. Fury players from this year's class of 2013 will be attending schools such as UNC, Vanderbilt, Dartmouth, Boston College while our commitments for 2014 class already include Loyola, Northeastern, Penn State and Clemson.

Fury players are playing throughout the powerhouse conferences of women's college soccer. The colleges trust the Fury training and preparation program. They know our players are committed, talented and understand the concept of sacrificing to be the best.

If you have a daughter who loves the game and enjoys a competitive training environment the Fury program is the only place in NY State. Fourteen Fury players have gone onto to play professionally from the program and the Fury name is admired and renowned throughout female soccer circles.

The Fury Director of Coaching is Paul Riley whose extensive experience in training, coaching, college advising/placement is unrivaled. This is an opportunity for your daughter to witness the same rhythm training methods that many of the elite female soccer players of the world have enjoyed. Players such as World Cup stars Vero (Spain), Amy Rodriguez (USA), Caroline Seger (Sweden), Megan Rapinoe (USA).

For the past 5 years ALBERTSON USSF ACADEMY has been one of the top development clubs in the Nation and the only Club on Long Island to have the USSF Academy status.

Our teams participate against the most talented teams in the nation such as Red Bulls, New England Revolution, Colorado Rapids, DC United, Columbus Crew, Montreal Impact and we play in front of all the elite colleges in the country. Albertson players from this year's class of 2013 will be attending schools such as Harvard University, Columbia University, Princeton University, University of Michigan, University at Albany, Stony Brook University, and West Point Academy. We also have our Academy graduates playing at: University of Maryland, Duke University, Boston College, St. Johns University, Dartmouth College, Air Force Academy, and University of Connecticut.

Albertson Academy players are playing throughout the conferences of men's college soccer. The colleges trust the Albertson Academy training and preparation program. They know our players are committed, talented and understand the concept of sacrificing to be the best.

If you have a son who loves the game and enjoys a competitive training environment the Albertson Academy program is the only place in NY State. Three players currently play in the MLS from our Program and two other players are playing in Europe. The Albertson Academy name is admired and renowned throughout soccer circles.

The Technical Director of the Albertson Academy is Skip Thorp whose has vast experience from National teams to elite programs. Head Coach Adrian Gaitan has pro-level experience and his tactical acumen is extensive. The Albertson Academy Director of Coaching is Paul Riley whose extensive experience in training, coaching, college advising/placement is unrivaled. Together these gentlemen make the perfect combination for the success of your son as both a soccer player and human being.

Any player interested in the U14, U16, U18 USSF teams should try to attend an "in season training session". For more information, please contact Skip Thorp at sthorp@msn.com.

Come join the only true competitive boys program in NY State.
